RIDER TO DISTRICT BILL

Board of Trade Committee Objects to Purchase of Workhouse Products

by Federal Government.

The committee on industrial interests the Board of Trade at a meeting yesterday afternoon recorded its opposition to a rider to the District appropriation bill which permits the sale of the products of the District of Columbia penal institutions to the federal government. The attention of the board was called to the rider by a Washington concern engaged in the sale of building material. This firm protested against the measure on the ground that the sale of the products of the workhouse to the government would be unfair to the private concerns engaged in selling to the government. At present brick and other building material prepared at the workhouse at Occoquan are sold to the District gov-ernment, and the rider to the appro-priation bill would permit their sale to the federal government.

The industrial interests committee will submit a The industrial interests committee will submit a report opposing the rider to the directers of the Board of Trade, who are to meet tomorrow afternoon. The directors will decide whether the matter should be placed before the entire board for its opinion. A copy of the committee's report will be sent to Chairman Smith of the Senate District committee.

risoners in Siberia, in great want and suffering, have been the subject of an appeal by Dr. Reinsch, American minister at Peking. To the misery of battle wounds have been added the terrors of typhoid fever, rheumatism, dysentery and frost bite.

The American Red Cross has forwarded a donation of $3,000 to an American committee in the Chinese capital, to be used in relief measures for these prisoners. It has also purchased a considerablee amount of surgical dressings and medicines on the Pacific coast to go forward.

From practically all countries where the Red Cross is maintaining hospital units and relief stations came encouraging reports in effective work accomplished through the generosity of the people of the United States. The American Red Cross is now maintaining 150 nurses and forty-four surgeons in the European war area.

From the Red Cross Bush terminal warehouses in Brooklyn an additional shipment of hospital supplies, for the use of the six surgeons and twenty-four trained nurses composing the American Red Cross personnel at Pau, France, has just been started, via Bordeaux. Included in this shipment are 200 pounds of chloroform, 1,000 pounds of assorted bandages, 5,000 yards of gauze, 100 bales of absorbent cotton, 200 pounds of permanganate of potash, 250 doses of tetanus antitoxin, one box of surgical instruments, one box of ligatures and sutures, and other hospital equipment. Recent communications received at Red Cross headquarters from the British Red Cross and the American relief clearing house in Paris in answer to inquiries, state that anti-tetanus, antityphoid and anti-diphtheretic serums are greatly needed. The American Red Cross has taken steps to make supplemental shipments to meet the needs.

Find No Clue to Whereabouts of Pauline Sullivan, Girl Who Disappeared.

Nothing has been learned by the police Pauline Sullivan, seventeen years old, who disappeared from her home, 1213 Euclid street northwest, December 13. Detectives Messer and Embrey, who were detailed to search for the young woman, said last night they were without a clue. Pictures cast and the detectives have made a thorough search of the city.

Another mystery that has not been solved involves the disappearance of William E. Cogswell, twenty-seven years old who conducted a lunchroom at 1359 U street northwest. Notes written by Cogs-well and the finding of his coat and other effects in a stateroom of one of the boats of the Norfoik and Washington Steamboat Company, the police were told, suggested to his father, William L. Cogs-well, 615 4½ street southwest, that he probably committed suicide. A relative suggested to the police that the young man purchased a steam-boat ticket, engaged a stateroom, put his effects and some notes in the room and stepped ashore before the boat sailed.

HOME FROM EUROPEAN WAR. United States Artillery Officers Saw

Fighting With Allies.

Lieuts. F. W. Honeycutt and E. St. John Greble, jr., 3rd Field Artillery, have returned from Europe, where they have been acting as observers with the French and British armies. They went originally to Europe with the relief party, but obtained permission to remain in France in order to observe the operations of the field artillery.

Their reports, which will shortly be filed with the War Department, will give some valuable data relative to the use of field artillery by the allies. Both officers were frequently on the firing line and had splendid opportu-nities to watch the work of the field artillery.
